

Nouns

IN ENGLISH

Nouns may be classified in three ways: proper or common; abstract or concrete; collective or compound.

Write the nouns in each sentence.

1. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow was a very popular poet in the nineteenth century.

2. His work has been translated into many languages.

3. Longfellow taught languages at Harvard University.

4. People gathered at his home in Massachusetts.

5. Events from history inspired this writer.

6. "Paul Revere's Ride" is one well-known example.

7. If Longfellow had not written this poem, Revere might be only a footnote in history books.

8. Europeans brought gold, gems, and spices from the Orient.

9. Columbus searched for shorter routes to such riches.

10. Americans are reminded of his bravery on Columbus Day.
